Joe Gyurcsak is a remarkably versatile artist who shares his extensive knowledge with articles, lectures, demonstrations and workshops throughout North America. His Day 1 workshop will address composition, value, color, edge control and paint manipulation. It is open to artists working in watercolor gouache, oil, acrylic or pastels. The Day 2 session will focus on movement and action in brushwork, contrast and flow of colors. Artists may work in watercolor, oil or acrylic mediums. For more information, go to the CAA website: www.caafinearts.org, or Mr. Gyurcsak's website: www.josephgyurcsak.com.
